The Threatened Indian Troubles in the West

CHEYENNE, Feb 14.—The Cheyenne Leader has a special dispatch from Fort Fetterman which states that a Cheyenne runner has just arrived there from Red Cloud Agency, who says that Red Cloud's son was killed last Monday by a party of Sioux whom he had compelled to return stolen stock. He reports that nearly all the Cheyenne and Sioux have left the Agency, and that 150 lodges are now within ... miles of Fort Fetterman, and will come in ... to that post. He reports plenty of buffalo ... the Big Horn country, and thinks the Sioux will go there. Two companies of cavalry were ordered from here to Fort Laramie to-day.

CHEYENNE, Feb 13.—No reliable information has been received to-day in regard to Indian trouble. Governor Campbell made a requisition on the War Department for the ... The ... and ammunition will ... from Leavenworth arsenal for the use of the citizens should it become necessary for them to protect themselves against Indians.

Adams Express Robbed and Indignities Offered to the Agent

ST LOUIS, Feb 14.—W R Smith, Agent of Adams Express Company at Granby, Mo, reports that several men entered his office yesterday afternoon, gagged him and robbed the safe of $ 100. The robbers are supposed to belong to the Gadshill band.

NEW YORK, Feb 14.—The bank statement shows an increase in loans of $980,000. Decrease in specie $,00,000. Increase in legal tenders $811,000. Decrease in deposits $281,000 and circulation $8,000.

The Philadelphia Ice House Disaster.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb 14.—Work was resumed this morning on the ice house. Two bodies were removed and recognized as Otto Shubert and Jacob Trimball. Two others (Chas Burk and Jacob Roth) are not yet recovered. Eleven bodies have been recovered. Eleven persons were injured, two of the latter are in a very critical condition.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb 13.—It is now known that ten men are buried in the ruins of Miller's ice house. Two more dead bodies have been recovered and two more men taken out alive, one slightly and the other fatally injured. This evening a man who was assisting in the rescue fell into an excavation, striking his head on a piece of timber, and was instantly killed.

Reforms in the Customs Service.

NEW YORK, Feb 14.—A special to the Tribune, referring to the information on the moiety system which the Ways and Means Committee have finally secured, says the members of the Chambers of Commerce and a Special Agent will be heard next Tuesday. Startling revelations are promised. There is evidence in abundance to show that informers and Customs officials have made it their business to concoct the clerks whose business it is to look after the Custom House affairs in large mercantile houses by persuading them to see that errors in invoices sufficient to condemn the whole should be allowed to creep in. If anything like a fight is made by the Customs officials, it will result in the uncovering of frauds such as must end in wholesale reform.

A Sensible Idea.

NEW YORK, Feb 14.—It is proposed to dispense with St. Patrick's Day parade this year and give the money which it would cost for the relief of the poor.

Mysterious Deaths.

CHICAGO, Feb 14.—Mrs Thompson living on the corner of Trumbull street and Bissel avenue was found in her room this afternoon insensible and apparently dying. Two of her four children were found, the third was dying and the fourth was very sick. It is supposed that they were poisoned in some way, but it is not positively known that such is the case.

A Tragedy in Georgia.

ATLANTA, GA, Feb 14.—At Milledge, Ga, last night, L M Wood poisoned three of his children and then shot himself. His wife had deserted him.

Big Haul by Bank Robbers.

CHICAGO, Feb 13.—The First National Gold Bank of Quincy, Illinois, was robbed last night of $100,000 in currency and a large quantity of bonds and other valuable papers. No clue to the robbers.

Irregularity by an R. R. President.

SANDUSKY, Ohio, Feb 14.—Rush B Sloane, ex-President of the Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland Railroad, was arrested to-day and held in $46,000 bail on seventeen distinct charges of embezzlement. It is understood that further charges will be made. Civil suits for some $150,000 have already been commenced and Sloane's property in Chicago, Boston and Sandusky has been levied on.

Charles Sumner's Triumph.

BOSTON, Feb 13.—The House of Representatives this afternoon voted 118 to 80 to rescind the Sumner censure resolution. The Senate has done likewise.

WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, Feb 13.—In the Senate to-day Mitchell introduced a bill authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Willamette river at Salem, Oregon. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Excited Discussion on the Modoc War Claims—Defeat of the Bill

The bill for ascertaining losses sustained by citizens of Southern Oregon and Northern California by Indian depredations in 1872 and 1873 provoked quite an excited discussion in which Shanks defended the memory of Captain Jack and his Modocs, and stated as a fact that when Gen Canby was holding his conference with Captain Jack the military lines were being closed around the Modocs. The bill was opposed by ... Hoar as establishing a dangerous precedent—that the Government is responsible for the ... of citizens damaged by ... Garfield said if the bill passed it would open sluices from the Treasury to claims from Ohio and Indiana arising out of Morgan's raid and from Pennsylvania arising out of loss from Lee's invasion, and there would not be a cent left in the Treasury. Finally, on motion of Garfield, the enacting clause was stricken from the bill in Committee of the Whole by a vote of 79 to 68, and the committee therefore rose and reported action to the House, and it was concurred in—yeas 10, nays 80. So the bill was defeated.

More Railroad Legislation

WASHINGTON, Feb 14.—Kendall has introduced a bill compelling railroad companies to receive patents for their land grants and thus put them in a position to share local taxation in case of their failure to comply, their lands to revert to the General Government. The bill is mainly intended to reach the Central Pacific Railroad, for the benefit of California and Nevada.

Indian Inspector Kemble and His Accusers.

WASHINGTON, Feb 14.—Indian Inspector Kemble, who was confirmed by the Senate last December, was hung up by a motion to reconsider, which was rejected only yesterday. The long delay in this final confirmation was caused by parties whom Kemble had offended by suspending Superintendent Milroy and others in Washington Territory and Oregon on suspicion of fraud. The same parties have been circulating imputations against Kemble's official character, in all of which they are sufficiently answered by his confirmation.

General Milroy Restored to Office.

WASHINGTON, Feb 14.—General R H Milroy, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Washington Territory, who was suspended from office in November last by Inspector E C Kemble, has been fully exonerated from all blame and was restored to his office to-day by order of the President.

Gen Sheridan Preparing for Troubles with the Sioux

WASHINGTON, Feb 13.—Gen Sheridan telegraphed to Gen Sherman from New York yesterday that official reports had been received by him of the recent murders by Sioux Indians, and that he would leave for Chicago to-day to superintend any action that might be necessary. Gen Sherman replied: "Under call of the Interior Department of to-day, sent to your headquarters at Chicago, you will be justified in collecting the most effective force possible, even if you draw cavalry from Fort Riley by rail to Cheyenne, to march to Red Cloud Agency, striking every party of Indians that oppose. Every Indian who has marauded south of North Platte should be demanded and held as an accomplice in the murder of Lieut. Robinson. Their ponies must be very poor now, and grain meat ... the occasion to give the Sioux a lesson so long merited seems to be favorable. My opinion is that the Sioux should never have an agency away from the Missouri river."

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 14.—Pools will be held at the Lick House this afternoon on the great wrestling match between Whalen of this city and Col McLaughlin the Eastern champion. The match is for $4,000. Bets are still in favor of McLaughlin.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 14.—A great crowd assembled at Platt's Hall to-night to witness a wrestling match for $4,000 between Michael Whalen of this city, champion of California, and Col James McLaughlin, champion of the East. When the men appeared on the stage the disparity of size and strength showed plainly, who would win. McLaughlin is a large, powerful, well formed man. Whalen slim and much lighter. After skirmishing four minutes and a half McLaughlin caught Whalen a cross toe trip and threw him square on his back. In the second bout Whalen showed more exertion, but was evidently afraid to take his feet off the floor. The bout lasted five minutes when McLaughlin by sheer strength lifted Whalen off his feet and threw him full on his back. Whalen lost his temper, hung on to McLaughlin and tried to turn him, but the judges stepped in and separated the men. The result caused immense cheering of the crowd all over the house and there was a rush to the stage. The referee as soon as order was restored announced McLaughlin winner of the match, and amidst great cheering declared him champion wrestler of the United States. About $10,000 pools were sold in the Hall at odds of $6 50 for Whalen to $40 50 for McLaughlin.

Terrible Calamity Averted in La Conner

LA CONNER, Feb 14.—An attempt was made here this morning, about 2 o'clock, to destroy the town of La Conner. Two balls of lamp wick saturated with coal oil were placed on the sill between the weather boarding and the inner lining of the house of J S Conner, in a portion of the building occupied by L L Martin as a general merchandise store. The fire was discovered by Mr and Mrs Conner, before it had made much headway, who immediately gave the alarm and, with the assistance of others the fire was extinguished. But for the fortunate and timely discovery of the fire our town would have been in ashes.

THE PEOPLE MARCHING ON

Affairs, Political and Otherwise, in Polk County

... INDEPENDENT ... CONVENTION ... ELECTION ...

INDEPENDENCE, Feb 1, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

As politics are getting ... your readers ... would like to know what the ... counties are doing, and as I promised to keep you posted I will let you know the latest developments.

In my last I mentioned ... to you about ... I can tell you of the facts. Polk county is going to follow the example of Douglas county ... going to have an independent ticket in the field. ... call to the tax payers of Polk county, irrespective of party, for the above meeting and purpose, and as the call has been signed by nearly every farmer, mechanic and merchant, it will be ... to be a success.

A few days ago some of the leading men of both parties met and concluded to take this matter in hand, and they have met with far better success than they expected. Men who always held strongly to party lines are now willing and anxious to help this new movement. Of course the main object is reform in county affairs, although they will show their influence in the nominations for State officers.

For some reason or other there is great opposition to Gov Grover, and I venture to say that he will not get a single vote from the Polk county delegation. I can't find out the reason for this opposition, but nevertheless it is so. As far as the Secretary is concerned we hear that little is said. Mr Chadwick seems to be but little known, and as a general thing I never heard any complaint about him. I suppose it is because it is not considered a very important or lucrative position. With the State Treasurership it is of course altogether different. I can hear half a dozen candidates discussed, but as Polk county has no aspirant for that office I believe the strongest candidate will get their vote in the Convention, and I should not wonder that the present incumbent will get the entire Democratic delegation just because he is so strongly opposed by the Grover party.

Although Hon B F Burch declines to be a candidate for any office, it is said he has been prevailed upon by a great many Republicans and Democrats to be a candidate for Joint State Senator, and if he accepts he surely will be elected.

One thing more and then I will stop. Generally correspondents will praise a paper they are writing to, but it is a fact I have lately heard more praise of the OREGONIAN than of anything else. You can hear daily when farmers are talking about papers or politics (which they nearly always do) expressions like the following: "The OREGONIAN is fighting monopolies and working for the interests of the farmer, and we ought to give it our support."

Of local news there is a dearth, nothing new transpiring. The black smiths are the only busy people in the town. They are overrun with work, such as sharpening and fixing up plows and other farming implements.

WELLBELD.

ABOUT THE PROPOSED DOG LAW

KERBYVILLE, Feb 5, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I have seen at different times of late in the papers articles from people in the Wallamet Valley complaining about dogs killing sheep and demanding the passage of a law to tax dogs. I think the trouble is that they want every one in the State to have a dog law whether they want it or not. I will admit that it might be beneficial in the Wallamet Valley and probably in the Umpqua to have less poor dogs, but in this county we have no sheep killing dogs. I have lived nearly seven years in the county, and have had more sheep than any one man and have had only one sheep killed to another man's dog in that time. And I have not heard of any one else losing any sheep by dogs. But I need four or five dogs to hunt wild animals to save my sheep. Lately a neighbor told me he saw a panther track near where my sheep run. I went for the panther—that is the dogs and I. In a short time I had a large panther. My son and ten men who work for me kill a number of panthers every year and in the spring of 1872 my son killed nine bears which the dogs treed. I am willing that any county or counties shall tax their dogs, but I think the people of this county would choose to be left out in the cold so far as taxing dogs is concerned. We are taxed about as heavily as we can stand it already. Nearly every man in the county that has any kind of stock is obliged to keep dogs to hunt panthers and bears.

If you can find room for this you will oblige

GOLD TOOTHPICKS AND WEDDING ENVELOPES FOR SENATORS

[Congressional Record Jan 27th.]

Mr Morrill, of Vermont, introduced a resolution instructing the Committee on the Contingent Expenses of the Senate to consider the expediency of excluding from the stationery room of the Senate all articles except paper, pens, envelopes, ink, pencils and mucilage.

Mr Morrill said the charge of extravagance in the matter of stationery furnished Senators had been spread throughout the land, and when he found that charge indorsed by such a respectable paper as the Boston Advertiser he thought it was time to take some notice of it. Every Senator knew these charges of fraud were untrue. The stationery and newspapers received by Senators came out of the allowance of $1 ... per annum to each Senator for that purpose. He read from the Advertiser that gold toothpicks, wedding envelopes and card cases had been furnished to Senators, and said he supposed that Senators could get what they pleased out of their ... no case exceed the sum ... statute. Again it was not taken into consideration that the entire Senate wing of the Capitol, the offices of the sergeant-at-arms, the secretary and engrossing clerks were supplied from the stationery room. The whole quantity had been lumped together and divided by the number of Senators, the amount thus ascertained being set forth as the quantity received by each Senator. ... inquired what Senator ... eighty two ... sponge, when it was well known that this sponge was used for cleaning the floors and marble steps around the Capitol. The Brownsville Grange numbers sixty odd members.

The Methodist Church South is holding a protracted meeting at Independence, conducted by Revs Mr White, Goucher, Sears and Burch. Their labors are attended with favorable results.

J M Garrison and Miss Hattie Clark, teachers of the North Public School in Corvallis, have resigned their positions, the embarrassing state of finances in the fund not promising immediate compensation for further services.

The Democrat says a large amount of wheat changed hands in Corvallis during the week at 85 cents per bushel. Farmers who could have realized one dollar per bushel a month ago now wish they had sold at that figure.

Money order business done at Canyon City office during the year 1873 was as follows: Number of orders issued 676, amounting to $19,490 60; average size of orders $28 84; number of orders paid 144, amounting to $6,455 08; average size of orders paid, $44 84.

Willis Hardman, son of Jos Hardman, of Strawberry Valley, while coasting down a hill at Prairie City, Grant county, a few days since, broke his leg just above the ankle joint. It is said to be badly shattered, and fears are entertained that amputation may become necessary.

A fire originating from the stove pipe in the dwelling house of Charlie Moore, Upper John Day valley, entirely consumed the building with all its contents, even down to a little lapdog belonging to Mrs Moore. She was alone at the time and could do nothing toward saving anything.

At a meeting of Grant county farmers recently held, among other resolutions, we learn the following was adopted, viz: "Resolved, That we will neither directly nor indirectly give our support to any professional politician for the purpose of elevating him to any office of honor or trust."

Mr D Howard, who arrived here a few days since from Burnt river, informs us that there are but two feet of snow in that locality, and about three feet at Olive, which is less than one half the amount usual at this season of the year. The Republican says: "There are a lot of mangy curs around Dallas that live off the sheep in the vicinity. Last week they killed twenty or twenty five within three miles of town. Now farmers have a right to feel aggrieved at persons who keep half a dozen hungry curs about, and if this killing of sheep continues as it has, all winter all dogs will have to suffer alike, for there is one way of killing them."

The amount shipped from Prairie City, Elk Creek, Olive Creek and Granite Creek—none of which came through Canyon City—was nearly or quite double the amount sent from the latter place, making the product of the country, including Spanish Gulch, omitted, above fully $300,000 for 1873.

J M Keys, ... who has been teaching school out at the Parsons' school house, Washington county, met with a very severe accident Saturday last. It appears that he had been troubled with the neuralgia for some time past and had been in the habit of taking morphine. On this occasion he took an overdose, which rendered him completely insane, and while in this condition he cut his wrist, severing the tendon extending to his thumb and three ... and ... smaller branches.

At a mass meeting of the people of ... held ... it was resolved to call a mass meeting of the people in each precinct of the county on the 21st inst for the purpose of selecting delegates to meet in a called County Convention to assemble in Antelope ... on the 1st of March next to select a county ticket composed of good and true men of honesty and sobriety, judiciously selected from all parts of the county, regardless of their previous political predilections.

The Statesman says: Mr Joseph Downer writes from Malheur to C W Royal, of Salem, that the party accompanying Mr Linville ... a remarkably good and quick trip, with ... that ... found ... in ... found ... all the way except two nights when ... camped out. The entire journey was completed in fifteen days, forty miles of the way being through the John Day valley, which is a rich farming country where they raise a vast amount of produce, supplying Camp Harney and Canyon City. Seventy miles of the way was over the Blue mountains, and for 30 miles snow averaged ten inches deep. At the Agency they found a beautiful little valley three miles square, in a deep gorge on the Malheur river, surrounded with high rough hills covered with fine grass. Our energetic friend Sam Parrish has accomplished a vast amount of labor here, building a house and providing for Indians, gaining their confidence, and laboring for their good. Pretty much on his own responsibility he has provided a large amount of commissary stores, built two good dwelling houses, good commissary buildings, a nice office, and we find things moving generally. He has got the entire confidence and good will of the Indians. They were summoned to see their new Agent and greeted him with good will, old and young. They said what Mr Linville told them was good talk. There are more children among them than any Indians I ever knew. I expect to see a jolly time among them when the supplies arrive, as they have none as yet this season.

THE TERRITORIES

The County Commissioners of Whatcom county have instructed the Sheriff to assess dogs in that county.

Chas J Cootes has resigned the office of Sheriff of Whatcom county, and Merritt H Upson was appointed to fill the office thus made vacant.

Wm R Griffin has been appointed County Superintendent of Common Schools by the Board of Commissioners of Whatcom county, vice W Y Dent, resigned.

The tug Mike cleared from Port Townsend on the 9th inst for Victoria, there to connect with the Prince Alfred to take insurance agents, divers and diving apparatus to the wreck of the ship Prater.

Whatcom County Commissioners Court has just adjourned. They have taken measures to provide for the keeping of the poor unfortunate man Wm Warner, who was injured by a mass of coal falling on him while at work in the mine.

A letter from Port Lapwai, I T, Feb 4th, says: "Weather, weather, weather. All kinds and any quantity of it. Snow, sunshine, hail, rain, fog, Oregon mist and such like in profusion, and yet we have had a pleasant winter. The grasshopper chirpeth, the yellow jacket (not the mine) stingeth, and 'conduct such as those progresseth.' Cattle are as fat as an alderman, and the grass as green as some of the Oregonians who visit 'Frisco,' though we have had it as cold as 4° below zero, which I am sure is cold enough for any one, except an Icelander. As I am writing this our pleasant little valley looks beautiful with its new carpet of green, while the surrounding hills with their robes of snow look down upon us in frigid silence, but we have the best of them as the sun is about to cross the aqueduct, and then, to the snow we shall say, good by John."

A man named Dellinger, who had beaten an Indian woman severely at Seattle, and then fled to Port Gamble, was told that the Sheriff was after him, and that if the people of Seattle ever got hold of him he would surely be hanged. This so worked upon the poor half witted fellow that he was fairly scared to death. On the 5th inst he conceived the plan of committing suicide, and being excited up to that state of phrenzy where the more bodily pain he could inflict upon himself the better it satisfied his diseased mind, he commenced the operation with a small, dull pocket knife. At first he attempted to stab himself to the heart, but he applied the knife too low and literally hacked the flesh away from his left breast in order to enable him to reach the fountain of his life. Then he plunged the knife between the bare ribs and worked the blade about in the cavity of his chest, but he reached not his heart. His left lung collapsed, though, and being unable to kill himself by wounding the heart he attempted to bleed himself to death, and in this effort he nearly severed the left hand at the wrist and badly lacerated the right wrist. The next morning he was found in a horrible plight quite out of his mind, and died in a few hours.

FIGHT FROM VASQUEZ.—Mr S B Inman, who left Bakersfield on Saturday, informs us that Mr John Frink and another gentleman who were coming down one of the canyons southward from Tehachapi last Friday, saw Vasquez and his gang, composed of ten Spaniards and ten white men, and their animals, encamped at the mouth of a ravine where feed was good. They brought the news to Bakersfield in the evening, and about fifty well armed men left during the night, expecting to be on the ground of the outlaws' encampment before break of day. The Sheriff's posse were with them, and arrangements were made for a vigorous pursuit. It was thought there would be news of a capture or skirmish in a day or two, and news from the pursuers is anxiously looked for.—Visalia Delta, Feb ...

OUR POLITICAL CREED

While we acknowledge allegiance to no political party, and relinquish no ... deny the right of any and all political parties formed or in process of formation to control our ... suborn our individual judgment, or bar perfect free expression on all matters pertaining to State ... yet obstinate ... will ... impracticable as we have been and always hope to be, we have our political creed.

And now that we, in common with all other citizens of Oregon, will soon be called upon to express our views on the wisdom and patriotism of measures proposed, or the fitness and capacity of men to carry out those measures of public policy, we wish to put ourselves fairly upon the record.

As to all proposed measures, whether reformatory or progressive, right here we take occasion to emphatically declare that all such, to merit our approbation and support, must conform to the unmistakable necessity of the times and clearly tend, and that with giant strides, to give to us a cheaper frame work of laws.

We are wearied, aye disgusted with the demands of the tax gatherers and the unrepublican and anti-democratic upstartism which claims for the incumbents in office a costlier style of living and a larger income than the same individual would require, or could command as a private citizen dependent upon his own personal exertions for a living. We demand for the toiling mass of Oregonians, that our laws be framed in rigid compliance with the Constitution of our State, that all Legislative subterfuges, whereby salaries have been increased, which were fixed by the Constitution, and the limits of official compensation thus determined by that instrument, shall be expunged from the statute book of our State; that in all cases where the Constitution has been trampled under foot by public officers in their voracious greed, the same shall be taken from the dirt, where in the mad zeal for unearned wealth it has been trampled, and restored once more to efficacy and power.

We protest in the name of all those who sundered the dearest social and family ties and wearily journeyed through desert wastes and savage wilds that they might establish a home and a heritage in Oregon, that this home so dearly won by trial and danger shall be no further mortgaged to pay off unconstitutional and unnecessary State and county indebtedness. We denounce it as a doctrine fit only for utterance under the shadow of an Oriental despot's throne—palace for ruler, hovel for the ruled.

We believe that more money is wrung from the hard earnings of the laboring class in Oregon to defray county and State expenses each year than should be extracted in three, taking into consideration the little public improvements which are made of a beneficial character.

We believe that when the General Government, State or county grants land, or other valuable aid to a private individual or corporation, in constructing a railroad, canal or wagon road, that the recipient of such aid has no equitable right to establish rates of fare upon such road or canal so as to gather from the people a dividend upon the money thus received, but that the full amount of such aid shall be deducted from the cost of construction, and that interest and dividend be only permitted upon the cash and labor actually invested in the enterprise by the parties constructing the same, and that the Legislature has a right to limit such interest and dividend to a fair income upon the amount thus actually expended.

We oppose all monopolies.—Dalles Mountaineer.

THE CONFIRMATION OF E C KEMBLE.—A dispatch dated Washington, February 7th, says: The nomination of E C Kemble, one of the five Indian Inspectors, was confirmed on Thursday. Yesterday, however, in executive session Senator Mitchell gave notice of a motion to reconsider the vote by which he was confirmed. The opposition to Kemble grows out of his act compelling the Indian Agents and Superintendents to do their duty, by which he has incurred the displeasure of certain Senators who are friends of General Milroy, who was suspended by Kemble. There is no doubt, however, of a final confirmation. He has been very active during the summer, and has reported to the department several irregularities in the Indian service, which need correction. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs to-day received from him a full statement of the suspicious transaction that took place at the Tule Reservation in the upper San Joaquin valley of California. He also reported that the new reservation recommended by recent Indian Superintendent Whiting, is not capable of supporting the Indians and should not be adopted.

BANK CASHIER IN PRISON.—The fall of ex-Senator Graham, the defaulting President of the Wallkill National Bank of New York, from a position of honor to the depths of disgrace is painful to contemplate. His business life was devoted to banking. He entered the Middletown Bank as teller, in 1841, and was appointed cashier in 1844. In 1869 he was chosen President of the Wallkill National Bank, and enjoyed public confidence to an eminent degree. While a member of the Senate, Mr Graham was Chairman of the Committee on Banks. His judgment was highly appreciated on questions of finance. Judge Benedict, in sentencing him to the penitentiary for ten years, said: "There are, indeed, no extenuating circumstances in your case. You were the President of a National bank, and as such you shamefully abused the confidence reposed in you and stole the capital of the bank to use in your private speculations. I therefore feel justified in inflicting upon you the highest punishment allowed by law. The sentence of the court is that you be imprisoned at hard labor for ten years in the Albany penitentiary."—Syracuse Journal.

SCOTT'S SECOND EXPLANATION—THINNER YET.

Up pops Mr. H. W. Scott in another card on the subject of his dispatch to Hon. Geo. H. Williams, in 1870, for money to carry the election in Oregon. His explanations get thinner and thinner. The truth of the matter charged in Mr. Pengra's open letter, which has caused this repeated rising to explain by Scott, is beyond question. This time Mr. Scott descends into particulars and, unfortunately for himself, shows entirely too much. He states that he received from Mr. Williams "one day nearly four years ago," a dispatch inquiring what was meant by a telegram sent to him (Williams) signed "Bayley and Scott;" and that he answered by telegraph, that he had "signed no telegram with Bayley." He embodies in his card a certificate from Mr. Guild, Manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, at Portland, that he did send such a telegram to Williams at the time stated.

Nobody would think of doubting Mr. Guild's word in the premises, and nobody need desire to do so for the purposes of the question of veracity between Scott and Pengra. Pengra, in his letter, made no mention of a dispatch signed "Bayley and Scott." He did not so much as mention any person of the name of Bayley. The telegram referred to in the dispatch of Williams to Scott and that of Scott to Williams was evidently a different one from that referred to by Pengra. Indeed we think it not at all unlikely that the story of the receipt by Senator Williams of such a dispatch as that said to have been signed "Bayley and Scott," was a "put up job," in order that Scott might send a denial of it over the wires, and thus divert attention from what was actually being done. This cabalistic "Bayley & Scott" is a mere subterfuge. As a test of the truthfulness of this suspicion, we challenge Mr. Scott to produce the certificate of Mr. Guild that such a dispatch was sent to Williams. His certificate in regard to Scott's telegram to Williams shows that we were right the other day in saying that the originals of dispatches were preserved, and could be had as long after their date as from 1870 to the present time. The dispatch, that, according to this story of Scott's, followed immediately after the alleged bogus one, has been produced. It would be easy now to produce the bogus one itself, if it had ever existed. But that's what's the matter. That dispatch will never be produced. The whole matter, in a nutshell, is that Pengra's plain words to Williams on the subject, when Williams showed him the dispatch in Washington City, asking for more money to carry the Oregon election, frightened the Senator. He saw that he had divulged the facts to a man who did not approve of that peculiar mode of electioneering, and that infinite mischief might result if this disclosure should be made public. To meet this possible—probable—contingency, evidence must be immediately cooked up, and this story of a bogus dispatch, suggested by Pengra himself in his surprise at seeing such correspondence, was invented. That is, doubtless, all there is of it. If not, Mr. Scott will be interested to produce the original dispatch signed "Bayley and Scott," in vindication of himself. When he does this, one very ugly circumstance against him will be cleared away.

But while Mr. Scott is popping up like a bottle-imp from day to day, with his explanations, why does he not at once go to the bottom of the matter and have done with Mr. Pengra in a single sweeping and triumphant defense. The gravamen of Pengra's charge is that money was telegraphed for, and sent here from Washington, to be used in carrying the election of 1870, and that H. W. Scott was a party to this abuse. What Mr. Pengra says is of no consequence except as it bears on that point. Now, why does not Mr. Scott meet the case squarely? Is this thing true, or is it not? That is a simple question, and easily answered.

Did Mr. Scott telegraph to Williams over his own or any other name for money to be used in carrying the election, or did he not? We insist upon stating the question thus particularly, because it was rumored that Mr. Holladay's name and cipher were used. Please, Mr. Scott, favor the public with the certificate of Mr. Guild that no dispatch of such purport was sent over the wires. That will be one long step toward a complete vindication of yourself. Do not hide behind any technicalities about the signature or wording of the dispatch, but meet its substance with a full and complete denial backed up by Mr. Guild's certificate. Will Mr. Scott do this? Not much. Not any. That certificate we greatly fear we shall never have the pleasure of seeing.

And then the other branch "into which the subject naturally divides itself," as the ministers say; what about that? Was money sent here from Washington in 1870 to carry the election with; and did Mr. Scott have a hand in the matter? When this, with the other branch of Mr. Pengra's charge above referred to are satisfactorily answered, we shall be glad to do Mr. Scott the justice to give the fact public acknowledgment. But if Mr. Scott admits his participation in the use of the moneys alleged to have been sent from Washington, then it would be interesting to some persons we know for him to specify what amount of those funds was used in Multnomah county, how much in Clackamas, Yamhill, &c. We are not prepared to say these details would be of great interest to the general public, but there are a few persons here in Portland and one or two in the interior we could name, who we are sure would feel some curiosity to know how far Scott's statement of the case now would tally with his statements made at the time.

COL. KEMBLE AND THE BULLETIN.

Elsewhere in this paper may be seen a card from Rev. George Burton relative to the transaction between the Bulletin Publishing Company and Col. E. C. Kemble, concerning which certain publications have appeared in that paper. Such of our readers as read the Bulletin will recollect that it was published therein that Col. Kemble had gone away from here, leaving a debt to the Bulletin Publishing Company unsettled; and that the next day the Bulletin stated, without comment or explanation, that Mr. Burton had called and paid the debt of Col. Kemble. This, of course, put the case in worst light than before, so far as Col. Kemble was concerned. It conveyed the impression simply, that a friend of Col. Kemble had come forward and made good his delinquency.

Mr. Burton informs us that the facts in the premises are, that the printing was done about the time of the Christmas festivities; that shortly after it was delivered, Col. Kemble called to pay for it, but not finding the business manager of the Bulletin Publishing Company in, and being compelled to leave the city, he handed the money to Mr. Burton to be handed by him to the Bulletin Company. This was at a Sunday School festival or concert in which Mr. Burton was engaged, and amidst the excitement of the occasion the entire transaction escaped from his memory, and he did not think of it again till his attention was called to it by the publication of Colonel Kemble through the Bulletin as an absconding debtor. Then he went to the Bulletin office and paid over the money, and gave the editor of the Bulletin a full explanation of the case, the latter promising to publish the truth, so as to exculpate Col. Kemble, in the next issue. Instead of such explanation appeared the second publication to which we have referred above.

No one can reasonably censure the Bulletin for the first publication, as there was nothing then known to the editor to rebut the presumption that the Bill was left unpaid through dishonest motives. But the explanation of Mr. Burton certainly placed the Bulletin under obligation to correct the wrong impression it had made against Col. Kemble. He was in no way censurable, and it would have been but an act of justice for the Bulletin to give the facts exonerating him after making a publication so injurious to his standing. The omission to pay was wholly chargeable to Mr. Burton. No one was chargeable with intentional wrong. Under the circumstances of the occasion Mr. Burton's forgetting the matter was certainly natural.

THE RING'S CHARGES BOILED DOWN.

All the frothing and vaporing of the briber's organ about the U. S. Judge of this district has at last simmered down into an allegation that the Judge has drawn up acts to be presented to the Legislature. The Judge might with truthfulness be accused of having written more than half the laws now in force in the State, but we presume the world is now first informed that this action of his has been a violation of his duties as a Judge. The State paid him for his services in preparing the codes of 1862 and 1864, and has again employed him on a commission to compile the laws. It is singular that the moral sense of the editor of the Bulletin should not have been shocked by this censurable conduct of the Judge's before. He was just as guilty of this act before Scott wrote that sketch of his life for the "Representative men" as he is now, and Scott knew it just as well, for it was a matter of public record, and the printing of the laws draughted by Judge Deady was done by Mr. Pittock while Scott was in his employ. And yet in that biographical sketch he ascribes to Judge Deady just that high character for ability and integrity which sustains his enviable reputation in this entire community. It is not the idea that Judge Deady has been guilty of any misconduct that stirs up the choler of the editor of the briber's organ, for he well knows no such charge can be truthfully made. The thing that galls him is that he can not make the Judge a party to the corrupt schemes of the ring.

The frigate Constitution, better known as "Old Ironsides," was docked at the Navy Yard, Philadelphia, last month, preparatory to being refitted throughout on the old model. She is to be exhibited at the Centennial in '76, as a memento of the days in which she won her fame. The Constitution was designed and the work of construction commenced in 1789. The Government appropriations gave out before she was completed, and a few ladies of Boston raised the money to complete her. Mr. Hartt, grandfather of the present naval constructor, (who is to rebuild her during the present year), was delegated to finish and equip her. The Constitution has always been considered the fastest sailer ever in the navy. Her first cruise was made in 1798.

Mr. Speer (Dem.), of Pennsylvania, has introduced in the House a bill providing for the purchase, by the General Government, of Thomas Jefferson's homestead, at Monticello. In presenting the measure, Mr. Speer remarked that the famous homestead is now in a state of desolation; the grave of the illustrious patriot is overrun with weeds, and the whole estate bears sorrowful evidence of the neglect and ruin which have come upon it.

CITY.

SCHOONER HERA.—This vessel is still detained below the boneyard by order of the city authorities. No other case of small-pox has been developed as yet, but the authorities will compel the vessel to remain in quarantine for nine or ten days to ascertain whether or not any more of the crew will contract the disease. Should no other cases be reported in a few days, the schooner will be thoroughly fumigated and then brought to the wharf to complete discharging the remainder of her freight.

UPPER WILLAMETTE.—The Gov. Grover, which reached Eugene City from this place last week, was the first boat to make the trip through from Portland to that place. Up to the arrival of the Grover no steamboat had been at Eugene since the last of June, 1871. The Grover had considerable difficulty in getting up from Harrisburg, owing to changes in the channel and snags. Some stumps were pulled out and logs cut away, and no further trouble is apprehended.

GONE OUT.—When the Dixie Thompson left Astoria last Saturday morning there was not a single sailing vessel remaining at that port, all having succeeded in passing out to sea. The Melancthon arrived at Astoria early on Saturday in tow of the tug Ben. Holladay. Everything was propitious, and the bark hitched on to the Brenham and crossed to sea without an hour's delay.

A GUN THIEF.—On complaint of J. Flynn, a milkman who resides south of the city, a man named Walter Burgauss was arrested on Saturday evening, charged with having stolen a rifle belonging to the complaining witness. Burgauss is now in jail, not being able to procure the required bonds. His case will come up for trial this morning in the Police Court.

MOTION DAY.—As fixed by the Circuit Court before its adjournment last week, to-day will be set apart for the disposition of motions. Attorneys [illegible] be unmindful of this fact. [illegible] required to-day; but all persons [illegible] been summoned as such are expected [illegible] attendance to-morrow morning at [illegible]

SEEN OFF.—[illegible] the steamer California came over the [illegible] last Saturday morning. [illegible] vessel was [illegible] beating [illegible] its. The vessel was [illegible] way off and could not possibly be identified. It is probably the Orient now over[illegible] from San Francisco.

A COURSE OF LECTURES.—Dr. J. B. Pilkington will go to Salem this morning to remain during the week to deliver a course of lectures on Ophthalmology and Otology (or diseases of the eye and ear) before the medical class of the Willamette University.

UNITED STATES COURTS.—This morning, at 10 o'clock, the United States Circuit Court will convene for the transaction of business. To-morrow morning, at the usual hour, the United States District Court [illegible]

MEETING OF COMMITTEE.—The Chairman of the Democratic [illegible] has issued a call for the assembling of its members at the Police Building, on Thursday, the 19th inst., at 2 o'clock P.M.

FROM SITKA.—The California arrived here about 9 o'clock on Saturday evening from Sitka and way ports. She brought very few [illegible] and a fair freight.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Washington Guard are perfecting arrangements for a grand time at their armory on Monday evening next. They are not novices at the business, and we may therefore expect to see everything in shape to make participants a most enjoyable time.

To-night the much-talked-of Masquerade Carnival, under the auspices of the Turn Verein, will take place at Ankeny's Hall. LOST TREASURE FOUND

With the exception of a small sum the entire amount of treasure lost several weeks since at Kalama has been recovered by Wells Fargo & Co after a long and patient search To Col Dudley Evans agent of the Express Company in this city we are indebted for all the circumstances connected with the recovery of the money which are substantially as follows Prior to the arrest of the young man F I Budlong on suspicion that he was either the principal or an accessory of the robbery he had been boarding with a family named Hale who reside in Kalama After his apprehension it was thought that if Budlong was the guilty party the money must be secreted somewhere about the premises where he was stopping. This caused the house of Mr Hale to be more or less watched not only by the authorities but the public at large The company were very anxious to recover the money and the authorities and many other persons were equally solicitous to be the happy finder so that they might secure the coveted reward More especially since the discharge of Budlong from custody at the close of his preliminary examination has his every action been the object of public scrutiny and the premises occupied by Mr Hale been more narrowly watched Nothing however of a tangible character rewarded public espionage until last week when almost the entire amount lost was suddenly and in a most unexpected manner discovered Adjoining the house occupied by Mr Hale is another building in which resides Mr Curtis master mechanic at the machine shops and his family Last Thursday afternoon Mrs Curtis and her little son were out in the front yard gathering up some dry sticks with which to start a fire While the lady was stooping down she observed some black looking object lying under the front porch which was several feet above ground At the first glance Mrs Curtis supposed it was an old joint of stove pipe but on taking a second look she discovered it was an old boot Thinking it rather strange that she had never before observed it lying there, she took a stick and turned the boot over To her surprise she saw that the leg was stuffed full of something Curiosity being now aroused, the lady proceeded to inspect it more carefully and to her great surprise discovered that the boot was crammed full with greenbacks. The realization of the fact that she had found the lost money, secured the reward offered, not unmingled with the unpleasant thought that the good name of herself and family might thus be compromised and become the object of unjust suspicion so completely overcome her with emotions that she could hardly speak In a terrible state of excitement Mrs Curtis ran into the house and informed her daughter that she believed some one had hid the money under their house and desired her to come out and look for herself However the daughter became more excited than her mother over the event and refused to touch the money, or even to look at the boot Mrs Curtis then ran down to the machine shop where her husband was working and in tones almost inaudable for want of breath and through excitement she informed him of the discovery It now became his turn to get excited and he refused to touch the money or have anything to do with it thinking that the public might have reason for suspicioning him. A young gentleman named Alger who is conductor on one of the trains was next told, but he too declined to touch the money Meantime the matter was taken under advisement, and a course of action determined upon The Sheriff of the county was appealed to at this juncture of affairs, but before he would consent to get the money application was made to Justice Smith for a search warrant which was granted, when the Sheriff repaired to Mr Curtis house and took the money into his custody

Mr Evans was notified, by telegraph, of the recovery of the money, and started down early on Friday morning Mr Curtis Mr Alger and the Sheriff counted the greenbacks on Thursday evening, and made the sum recovered $7,01... But the amount was counted hastily and under considerable excitement, and was not correct After the arrival of Mr Evans and L A Cronin from this city the money was very carefully counted several times, when it was ascertained beyond question that the sum of $7 ... had been recovered which lacked only $4.20 of being the total sum lost

Budlong was arrested on Thursday afternoon, soon after the money was found the locality in which it was recovered being deemed a strong circumstance against the innocence of the accused On Friday, he was taken before Justice Smith and the preliminary examination commenced Judge Dennison, counsel for the defendant demurred to the complaint when it was mutually agreed to continue the further investigation of the case until Wednesday next

On motion of Mr Cronin, the Court instructed the Sheriff to deliver over to Mr Evans the sum of money recovered which was done Mr Evans then returned the sum of $1 8.. to Mr and Mrs Curtis, the Sheriff and Mr Alger as the proper proportion of the reward offered—$2 000. This sum was divided into three parts Mr Curtis and wife receiving one-third However Mr Alger declined to receive his portion of the reward but gave it to Mrs Curtis whom he declared was justly entitled to it

Budlong is at present confined in jail His friends still confidently assert his innocence notwithstanding the suspicious circumstance of the recovery of the money The general opinion at Kalama is that he is the guilty party Since his arrest the last time, he appears less confident than before his courage in a measure having apparently deserted him

The money which was not recovered was in small change, principally fractional currency of the denomination of 10, 25 and 50 cents

GRACEFUL SKATING.

We have been handed the following note by a gentleman who witnessed the skating contest last Saturday evening at the Rink with a request to publish

Taking an interest in athletic sports of all kinds I was quite surprised on Saturday evening to see how prejudice and favoritism were manifested in the vote cast for the Champion Skater of the State at the Portland Skating Rink There should be a liberality of judgment in the possession of every one determining their decision in such contests in favor of the deserving only even should such decision be against their best friend and if not possessed of such honesty of purpose should remain neutral in position which would at least preserve them from injustice We will not presume to say that the award for best skater was given on Saturday night undeservedly but must beg you in kindness through the columns of your paper to give it as an opinion of outsiders that the majority of the voters did not cast their votes upon their conviction of the ability and grace of the gentlemen skaters nor as judgment would have dictated as shown by the demonstrations previous to the commencement of the contest and it is the wish of those who advocate fair play that Mr Thompson and Mr Harvey make another exhibition of their skill and the decision be left to unprejudiced and competent judges

Mrs Belle W Cooke moved that a committee of five be appointed to draft By Laws for the future use of the Association The motion prevailed, and Mr Cooke, Mrs J DeVore Johnson Mrs McCown, Col C A Reed and P C Sullivan Esq were appointed as the committee.

Mrs Buck offered the following resolution which was adopted

Resolved That each Woman Suffrage organization throughout the State of Oregon, secure the names of all men and women who are sympathizers with the movement and forward them to the secretary of the State Association to be presented at the convening of the next Legislature We might by this means impress that body that we are in earnest even if we failed to have a majority with us

Presented by Mrs Dr Sawtelle of Portland and adopted

Resolved That the delegates from each county be allowed to name the Vice President to be chosen from their respective county

Presented by Mrs F O McCown of Oregon City and adopted

Resolved That the distinction now existing in our laws between estates in dower and estates in curtesy, by which when the husband dies his wife has the use of one third of his real property and when the wife dies her husband has the use of all her real property, is unjust and invidious a relic of barbarism and should be abolished

Presented by Hon W C Johnson and unanimously adopted on a rising vote

PLATFORM

The following platform, reported by the Committee on Resolutions was read by the Chairman of the Committee Mrs Belle W. Cooke and adopted

WHEREAS The Government of the United States is based upon masculine superiority instead of the inherent rights of human beings regardless of sex, thereby causing much dissatisfaction among the taxed but unrepresented citizens of the non voting class who feel aggrieved because of the political disabilities to which they are forced to submit therefore,

Resolved That the first duty of the voters of the nation is to inaugurate such legislation as may be necessary to end with the disfranchised half of the people with all the rights privileges and immunities of citizens such as can only accrue to any people through personal representation

Resolved That the motto of the Association copied from the war cry of our forefathers is and shall be till the victory is won "Taxation without representation is tyranny"

After the above essay the programme for the evening was announced and on motion, the Association adjourned until 7 P M

EVENING SESSION

The Association convened at 7 o clock O B Gibson in the chair

Col Reed Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws stated that he was ready to report As the result of their labors the Committee offered the following amendments to Article 1st of the Constitution in relation to officers

Section 1 There shall be an Executive Committee chosen annually who shall have general charge of the business of the Association and perform such duties as may be required by the Constitution and By Laws and Resolutions of the Annual Meeting

The following persons were elected on the first ballot as members of the Executive Committee Mrs C I Price Col Reed and Mrs J D Johnson

The constitution was next read and circulated through the audience to afford all desiring an opportunity to sign and become members of the Association

A duet entitled "The World is Moving On" was next rendered in a very acceptable style by Mrs Kelty and Miss Clara Duniway

Miss Coombs by request favored the audience with a poetical recitation in the rendition of which that young lady acquitted herself in a very creditable manner

"Might with the Right" a solo and chorus sung by four ladies and one gentleman was well received

This was followed by an excellent essay read by Miss Virginia Old

Mrs Dr Sawtelle was next introduced and addressed the Association for a few minutes in which she made a strong and effective appeal in behalf of the enfranchisement of her sex. She concluded her remarks by reciting a most beautiful and touching poem entitled "The Convict s Mother"

A short letter was read from Geo P Riley Esq who it was announced, would address the Association The writer stated that he heartily sympathized in the efforts being made to give women equal rights—social and political—and would cheerfully aid the movement to the extent of his humble ability in any way possible Circumstances over which he had no control however rendered it wholly impossible for him to be present to address the Association on the auspicious occasion

Hon P. C Sullivan was next introduced and addressed the Association for about half an hour He made a very able and logical speech, advocating female suffrage and quoting copiously from various legal authorities and the constitution of Oregon, to prove his position Mr Sullivan s speech was decidedly the most logical effort in behalf of female suffrage which we have yet listened to from the rostrum

J F Caples Esq followed Mr Sullivan in a speech of about fifteen minutes, after which Mrs Duniway took the rostrum for a short time

A resolution of thanks was tendered the citizens of Portland for their hospitality, and the generous courtesies which had been extended to the members of the Association

On motion an order for $46 50 was drawn on the treasury of the Association to defray all expenses incurred thus far

On motion the Association adjourned sine die

A CARD.

The Portland Bulletin having given publicity to the fact that Col F C Kemble had gone from here indebted to the Bulletin Publishing Co for a job of printing the undersigned called upon the editor asking that the matter might be explained exculpating Col Kemble from all blame The explanation merely stated that the bill had been paid which left the matter as bad as ever

The facts are these Col Kemble handed me the sum due the Bulletin the very day the printing was finished asking me to settle the account I made no memorandum of it and unfortunately forgot all about it The public will therefore please take notice that the fault was all mine and Col Kemble is entirely free from all charge of fraud or carelessness

VANCOUVER ITEMS

Under date of the 14th our correspondent says

The depository of the Bible Society has been removed to S D Maxon s store

A light fall of snow visited us on Friday evening and disappeared the next day No harm done

The entertainment of the Good Templars came off on Wednesday evening as per announcement The attendance was large the singing good and the drama and burlesque very excellent Some of the performers deserve special mention but there were too many to mention all and we do not wish to slight some by mentioning others The entertainment as a whole gave general satisfaction We have not learned what are the proceeds but we should judge from the size of the audience that they realized a very handsome sum

Your correspondent is bound to be in disgrace About two weeks ago some one complained that he was like the preacher who could talk all day and not hurt anybody s feelings Now another complains that one of our teachers has been criticised Your correspondent meant no unkindness to the teacher whom he regards with the greatest respect and whom he will do what is in his power to assist He spent an hour in her school a short time before and supposed he knew whereof he wrote We wish our teacher to understand that that big eye, the eye of the public is upon them

A prospectus announces that the Vancouver Register is to reappear with B. M Washburn as publisher and proprietor and Urban E Hicks as editor It will appear on or about the 28th of the present month "The paper will be twenty eight columns in size independent in character and especially devoted to the wants of Vancouver Clarke county and the Columbia river section of Washington Territory" This latter clause would intimate that the paper would be in duty bound to support the river candidate for the next election We very much need a local paper and are glad that it is to be revived From the well known ability and character of the proposed editor we trust it will meet our wants

CONSUMPTION,

The scourge of the human family, may in its early stages be promptly arrested and permanently cured

RAVENSWOOD W Va, Oct 28th, 1872.

Dr R V PIERCE

Sir—For the last year I have been using your Golden Medical Discovery I owe my life to it having been afflicted for years Did not use it but a short time before I was benefited at that time I was very bad not able to sit up much was suffering greatly with my throat was getting blind had a dry cough and much pain in my lungs I have used twelve bottles of the Discovery and am almost well

KATE T WARDNER.

A son of Mr S H Merrick of Chatham Four Corners N Y has been cured of Consumption by Dr Pierce s Golden Medical Discovery —so says Mr C B Canfield, editor of the Chatham Courier

S R Foran druggist of West Union O writes to state that Dr Pierce s Golden Medical Discovery has effected a wonderful cure of Consumption in his neighborhood.

It is now generally admitted by honest physicians that when once the consumption is fairly fastened upon the lungs no human power can save the patient from death They also say that about fifty per cent of those who die from this disease can trace the cause to a neglected cough or cold which might have been cured by a small bottle of Liquid Oro deldoc or what is the same thing Johnson s Anodyne Liniment

Cut this notice out and bring it with you! We are authorized to refund the cash to any person or persons who shall buy and use Parson s Purgative Pills and fail of relief and satisfaction

A DIAGNOSIS OF LOVE

BY MRS BARBAULD

Come hither, fond youth, whoe'er thou be
That hopes to love as well as me
And if thy breast have felt so wide a wound
[illegible] and thy name approve
Learn here what it is to love
[illegible] what marks true passion may be found

It is all bathed in tears
[illegible] upon a smile for years
[illegible] a beauty's feet
[illegible] to languish and implore
And still though she disdain adore —
[illegible] all this and think thy sufferings sweet

It is to gaze upon her eyes
With eager joy and fond surprise
Yet tempered with such chaste and awful fear
As wretches feel who wait their doom
Nor must one ruder thought presume
Though but in whispers breathed to meet her ear

It is to hope though hope were lost
Though heaven and earth thy passion crossed;
Though she were bright as sainted queens above
And thou the least and meanest swain
That folds his flock upon the plain—
Yet if thou darest not hope thou dost not love

It is to quench thy joy in tears
To nurse strange doubts and groundless fears
[illegible] of jealousy thou hast not proved—
Though she were fonder and more true
Than any nymph old poets drew—
O never dream again that thou hast loved

If when the darling maid is gone,
Thou dost not seek to be alone
Wrapt in a pleasing trance of tender woe,
And muse, and fold thy languid arms
Feeding thy fancy on her charms
Thou dost not love for love is nourished so

If any hopes thy bosom share
But those which Love has planted there
Or any cares but his thy breast enthral—
Thou never yet his power hast known
Love sits on a despotic throne
And reigns a tyrant if he reigns at all

Now if thou art so lost a thing
Here all thy tender sorrows bring,
And prove whose patience longest can endure
We'll strive whose fancy shall be lost,
In dreams of fondest passion most
For if thou hast loved O never hope a cure

[FROM OUR TRAVELING CORRESPONDENT]

PORTLAND, Feb 11, 1874

This county can safely be reckoned among the favorite agricultural counties of the Willamette Valley, not for its extent, but for the richness of the soil, the variety of its productions, the beauty of its prairies and the variety and grandeur of its scenery From the mountain heights, three miles in the rear of Forest Grove a magnificent view can be had of the country for many miles The bottom lands at the foot of this range of mountains, through which Gale's Creek runs are as rich and productive as any in the State Seven years since these lands could have been bought for $15 an acre now they could not be got under $50, and cheap at that From this range of mountains the Tualatin Plains come into full view, These plains extend from Forest Grove to beyond Hillsboro, and embrace a considerable number of charming prairies and cultivated farms, skirted with belts of fine timber, and studded with good farm-houses These can be seen to advantage from the old stage road Five years since the best farms in this plain could have been purchased for $15 an acre the same farms now sell for $30 These farms are all prairie land, well fenced and fairly cultivated, with good dwelling and office-houses Very good farms can be bought from $15 to $25 an acre, with corresponding less improvements. more or less timber lands, and more remote from markets Lands near and in the foothills adapted for stock, can be got very cheap. There is probably no county in the Willamette Valley where farms of the same quality can be purchased to more advantage than in Washington county

This county has the advantage of the westside railroad, known as the Oregon Central Railroad It runs nearly through the center of the county This road has, no doubt, been the occasion of doubling the price of land in the county, and is in many respects a great boon to the farmers and traveling public, with certain exceptions to be noticed hereafter.

The towns in the county are not numerous. It is still thinly settled and there is a large quantity of the land under valuable timber. Forest Grove is the most beautiful town and the most promising of progress I mentioned some of its leading features in a former letter. The fact that the Oregon Central Railroad refused to put a passenger station at Forest Grove is a sample of the blunders that the Company have made, and its conduct in this case can be looked upon in no other light than as an insult to the intelligence of the people and the growing prosperity of the place, as well as detrimental to the best interests of the Railroad Company.

CORNELIUS

Is one of the towns created by the Oregon Central Railroad, and is the result of a bad feeling between some of the leading persons at Forest Grove, Hillsboro and the Railroad Company, on the subject of land subsidies to the latter party All the parties are likely, more or less to blame The former were probably stiff and selfish, and the latter revengeful Both are suffering the natural consequences, inconvenience on the part of the people, and pecuniary loss on the part of the Railroad Company

The name was given to the town as a compliment to Col. T R Cornelius the leading merchant of the place and proprietor of the only warehouse in it Mr Cornelius has the reputation of being a man of integrity, and conducts his store and warehouse so as to secure the esteem and confidence of the public He acts as a real estate agent, and those wanting farms in that district will find him reliable. He shipped this season from his warehouse 63,000 bushels of wheat He is, in fact, the strength and stability of the town, The place made great progress during the first year of its existence but few improvements have been made during the past year The most important late improvement is the erection of a large district school house, that will go so far to attract families to the place for the education of their children The school is well attended, and is under the care of Mr M G Royal, who is quite a favorite at Cornelius as an excellent teacher and a valuable member of society He is ably assisted by Miss Creswell, who has charge of the primary department.

Dr Davis has established a newspaper during the past year in Cornelius He is the proprietor and editor. It is well and ably conducted and keeps the town and its interests fairly before the public The Doctor is a favorite and has made many friends

There are about thirty houses in Cornelius 150 inhabitants Any thing like active business in the three general stores and work shops is confined to the season for hauling and shipping wheat. What will be the future of Cornelius it is difficult to say Its friends are hopeful Had the Directors of the Oregon Central Railroad been satisfied to have made the most of Hillsboro and Forest Grove, it would have been vastly more profitable for the company, and of equal importance for the county, even although Cornelius never should have had an existence

HILLSBORO

Is the county seat of Washington county and apparently the largest town in the county, but Forest Grove has really a larger population than it has. The former has 543 inhabitants while the latter has 592 The county has lately erected a fine Court House built of brick, and well finished at a cost of $14,000 A first class district school house has been finished during the year it is largely attended and the school is conducted with marked ability by Mr D M C Gault who has a high school class among his advanced pupils The scholars immediately under his care are good specimens of the general intelligence and cultivation of the young people of Hillsboro There are 28 places of business in the town including general stores drug stores, and nearly all kinds of mechanics and tradesmen's shops After the railroad passed the town it made little if any material progress for a year During the past year it has perceptibly improved, and now promises to keep advancing. Its central position, supported by the rich and fertile prairies and prosperous farmers will secure its permanence and ultimate growth beyond peradventure The great drawback to its rapid progress is the fact that the directors of the Oregon Central railroad refuse to give the town a freight station. This was originally caused by the obstinacy and selfishness of the land owners on the line not giving at once a liberal subsidy of land for the station buildings, and an addition to the town site by which the railroad company would have been pecuniarily benefited the result of which was revenge on the part of the directors of the railroad, by refusing to give the town a freight station

In this fight the farmers were determined to have their revenge in turn, and act equal to the occasion by resolving to haul their wheat to Portland This they did and the result is that Col Cornelius acknowledges that at least 40 000 bushels of wheat were hauled by the farmers to Portland every bushel of which would have went by the railroad if the directors had put a freight station at Hillsboro Some of the best informed farmers of the district say that between 60 000 and 70 000 bushels were hauled to Portland If the minimum quantity be taken at 70 000 bushels hauled it was a clear loss of $4 000 to the Railroad Company The most intelligent class of farmers admit that the loss of time to them in hauling to Portland was about $1 000

The plans of the farmers for the coming season should no freight station be erected at Hillsboro are more practical and economical They intend organizing a regular plan of hauling their wheat hauled to Portland by public teams, at the same rate as the railroad charges thereby losing nothing in loss of time, and all will travel, as far as possible by their own conveyances, and thus teach the directors a practical lesson that farmers have rights that the directors of railroads should respect This is a part of the farmers' programme for the coming harvest The directors of the Oregon Central Railroad would do well to 'mark, learn and inwardly digest' these facts by taking time by the forelock' and as soon as possible give a freight and passenger station to Hillsboro and Forest Grove. By doing so they will do a public duty to the merchants and farmers of Hillsboro to the intelligent and refined people of Forest Grove, add largely to their own annual earnings and immensely to their popularity in the county These are the sentiments of the people at large The present feelings of indignation will then be turned into those of gratitude, if the suggestions offered are acted on with reasonable promptness and in a proper spirit

BEAVERTON

Is a small railroad village It will not increase much until population comes into the county more extensively It is perhaps, the garden spot of the State for raising vegetables to advantage The beaver dam land that abounds there, is invaluable, and those who thoroughly understand the business of raising vegetables, having a fair amount of capital to commence with, could make a handsome fortune in ten years
